Transition area:

We maintained the concept of a central transition area for all distances and transitions. It is sited straight in front of the hunting castle Moritzburg, on the parking place. The transition area may only be entered by the starters. The route maps may be consulted on the website. The cycling course may alter due to authorization procedures.

Catering:

- On the long and Half Distance, there are 2 catering points on each bike lap and catering points each 2,5km on each running lap. Water, isotonic drinks, cola, gel, energy bars and bananas are served.
- As for the Olympic and Everyman triathlon, there is a drinking point on the running lap.
- After the race, drinks and food are served to all finishers in the finish area.
- Own drinks and food may be passed by companions next to the catering points.

Timekeeping:

The timekeeping is realised electronically with transponders. The transponder will be taken from the starting documents and returned after finishing. In case of loss, a duty of € 80 is to be paid to the organizer. It is not possible to use own transponders or chips.

Rescue in water:

Wasserwacht OG Dresden Land

Medical safeguarding:

Alongside the course and in the finish area, the medical care is secured. All catering points serve as reference points in case of injuries and breakdowns.

Massage:

Saturday 12/6/2021 (for all starters of the long and Half Distance, within the starting fee)

Parking area:

The grand field parking site at the southern town entry (coming from Dresden) is available for free for all athletes and visitors. From there, there are 2,000 meters to go to the race area in front of the castle.

Souvenirs:

In the registration office, various souvenirs can be purchased.

Accommodations:

There are several hotels, camping sites and accommodations of all categories around Moritzburg.

EXEMPTION FROM LIABILITY

Hereby, I register bindingly for the Schloss-Triathlon Moritzburg. The event is based on the competition rules of the DTU and on the legal and disciplinary code that can be demanded at the DTU or viewed with the organizer on the competition day. The competition rules and the organisation standards are known to me. I agree with them and regard them as authoritative.

I affirm that my health situation conforms to the competition's requirements. I am informed about the physical endangerments and the other circumstances that are connected with the competition, and I explicitly affirm to take part in the event at my own risk. I acknowledge the anti-doping-rules of the NADA.

I agree to be treated medically at my own expense during the competition if this was advisable in the case of injuries, an accident and/or a disease in the course of the race.

I know and I agree that I carry the sole responsibility for my personal possessions and sport equipment during the Schloss-Triathlon Moritzburg and therewith connected activities.

Concurrently, I affirm that I will not demand any claims and legal entitlements from the organizer, his staff as well as from the involved clubs, communes and other corporations as far as no liability insurance claims exist. Herein, all immediate and mediate damages are included as well as all claims that I or my inheritor or other authorized third parties may assert due to injuries or in the case of death.

In the case of force majeure, shift or cancellation, no right of recourse may be asserted towards the organizer. If the event is cancelled, the starting fee is not refunded. Further claims are excluded.

I will observe the rules of conduct that are valid for the Schloss-Triathlon Moritzburg. I will follow the instructions of the organizer and his staff. The registration is only relevant when the organizer has received the starting fee. Markings and additions in the registration form are irrelevant.

I agree that the data given in my registration and the photos and video shootings that are taken of me on the occasion of my participation in the Schloss-Triathlon Moritzburg may be used within the reporting for the event and for the event's advertising without claims for remuneration on my part. This holds not true for commercial usage.

I affirm that I will not pass my starting number to another person. I know that I will be disqualified if I modify the official starting number in any way, in particular if I efface the sponsors' prints.

With my signature on the registration I declare that I read the abovementioned requirements accurately and in detail and that I agree with its content.
